

A floor plan diagram showing a building layout. The plan is divided into three main sections. The leftmost section is a large rectangular area with a light gray grid pattern, labeled 'Loja 46,2M²'. The middle section is a narrower vertical strip containing two identical bathroom units, each with a toilet and a sink, separated by a horizontal partition. The rightmost section is a solid dark gray area labeled '12 M² área descoberta'. The entire plan is enclosed in a dark gray border.
